

TD's Tips!

College-Based Transition Programs

What can I do?

1. Learn more about college-based transition programs with Lesley University's 10 Tips for Finding the Right Transition Program.
2. Learn about colleges that offer comprehensive transition programs (CTPs) for youth with intellectual disabilities on the ThinkCollege website.
3. If you find a program you are excited about, click on the program or school's website and explore the application process, deadline for application, how much it costs, and what's unique about the program or school.
4. Create a vision board to help you map out program information, so you can start to make some decisions about what is best for you and your goals.

Pro Tip!

Share what you learned with your transition team, and make a list of the schools or programs you're most interested in.

How about an ultimate challenge?

Contact the school or programs and to learn about your options. Make a plan to visit the campus and see the program!

TRANSITION DISCOVERIES
Your Voice · Your Story · Your Future

Copyright © 2020 The George Washington University and Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Council. Permission to reprint, copy and distribute this work is granted provided that it is reproduced as a whole, distributed at no more than actual cost, and displays this copyright notice. Any other reproduction is strictly prohibited.

This tip sheet is aligned to the "Postsecondary Education" lesson plan. You can search in the "resources" page on transitiondiscoveries.org to download it!