

TRANSITION DISCOVERIES

Your Voice · Your Story · Your Future

Young people with disabilities, families and professionals who support them make up a powerful network of relationships, knowledge and experience for what's working in transition. Through the power of collaboration, Transition Discoveries connects these networks into a detailed road map for success.

For Youth

Get started in preparing for your future by traveling through this website. Look around, stop and try some activities to plan for your future.

Begin your Discovery Journey!

For Families and Allies

An adult ally is a parent, teacher, mentor, counselor, community leader, or any adult who actively and genuinely listens to young people, respects their perspectives, and collaborates with them to make decisions regarding their success and happiness.

Engage your young person in planning for the future.

For Professionals

As a professional working with youth and young adults with disabilities, you have a key role in the transition process. This site provides tools, resources, and training to support your work in helping youth, young adults, and their families navigate the transition process.

Empower young adults through transition.

Visit transitiondiscoveries.org for more information!

